

THE CIRCLE OF LOVE

FLOURISHING IN EXILE

Week 2 | April 26 Sermon

Community:

As a reminder from last week, we encourage you to start something new in this season by joining in community with your own Circle of Love, acknowledging the example set by the Trinity and our invitation into their divine dance. If you have started a GROUP, we would love to know! Our team would be honored to lift you up in prayer as you gather and support, equip and resource you in any way we can! You can notify us by emailing Jenny Hesseltnine, Director of Community, at jennyh@trcpella.com.

Spend some time this week simply getting to know each other better. It is often through asking simple yet good questions that we begin to develop trust and relationship so that we can then discuss deeper things with one another in confidence. Here are some questions to get you started:

- Do you prefer hugs or high-fives and why?
- Do you consider yourself an introvert or extrovert?
- What is a talent you wish you had?
- Where is a place you'd love to visit?
- What makes you happy despite any mood?
- What is one item on your bucket list?
- What translation of the Bible to you prefer?

Looking for an even simpler start? Everyone share "pits and cherries," a.k.a. one bad thing about the week and one highlight of the week. Each groupie can share as much or as little as they'd like about each.

Sermon Discussion Questions:

Teacher: Kevin Korver

What are the barriers in my life that inhibit my ability to either "live into" or to "live out of" The Circle of Love?

How can these barriers be removed?

Are there specific practices that would enhance a "joyful intimacy" with our Triune God?
