

THE CIRCLE OF LOVE

FLOURISHING IN EXILE

Week 3 | May 3 Sermon

Community:

Do something just for fun this week! If you're familiar with or have the app Houseparty, you can play a game together on it. Or get creative with your phone calls, ask good questions or play charades on Zoom or FaceTime!

If you saw the post-service interview with Verlan last week, you heard what his GROUP is doing by collecting significant Scripture passages that groupies have really leaned on or related to through this season. Consider your own GROUP Scripture collection or keep some form of digital gratitude journal full of praises to keep everyone thinking and feeling positive. Praise changes everything!

As a reminder, we encourage you to start something new in this season by joining in community with your own Circle of Love, acknowledging the example set by the Trinity and our invitation into their divine dance. If you have started a GROUP, we would love to know! Our team would be honored to lift you up in prayer as you gather and support, equip and resource you in any way we can! You can notify us by emailing Jenny Hesseltnie, Director of Community, at jennyh@trcpella.com.

Sermon Discussion Questions:

Teacher: Kevin Korver

As a Christ-follower and using Biblical terms, what does the phrase "glad surrender" mean?

What enables you to choose "glad surrender" as you embrace the Circle of Love?

What blocks your "glad surrender" with our Triune God? With others? How can these blocks be removed?
