

EXPRESSING GOODNESS THROUGH GENEROSITY

FLOURISHING IN EXILE

Week 6 | July 12 Sermon

Community:

Past, Present and Future Community building begins when people are loved as individuals. Part of that is allowing people to share about themselves. Share about yourself and learn about others in your group by answering some of these questions together—looking back, being real about today, and anticipating what is to come. Don't feel obligated to answer each one, but enjoy the process of learning about each other first and foremost.

Past Questions:

- What is your favorite childhood memory?
- What was your greatest struggle as a teenager?
- What is your earliest recollection of God?

Present Questions:

- What is a time during the week that you can relax?
- How do you grow in your relationship with Jesus during the day?
- What is your greatest joy in your faith? What is your greatest struggle in your faith?

Future Questions:

- Where would you live if you could live anywhere in the world, and why?
- What part of your faith would you like to work on in the next year? How will you do this?

Sermon Discussion Questions:

Teacher: Kevin Korver

Why is Sabbath rest so important to us as Christians?

Do you agree that if you do not make time to Sabbath, you are worshiping Mammon or Pharaoh?

Pastor Kevin pressed into us being intentional about taking time away from our phones and technology during Sabbath. What could that look like for you?

Do you practice Sabbath rest? If comfortable, share with others. If not, what could intentional Sabbath rest practices are you willing to adopt?
