

Freedom Class – The Living Word (Chapter 9)

Small Group Questions - The Living Word

- Does reading the Bible come easy or hard for you?
- Is there a way that you enjoy engaging with scripture? Have you tried some different things over the years?
- Can you think of a time where the Lord used a Bible verse or story to really speak to your life? Can you remember promises that he has given you from His Word?
- On p. 134 it talks about a pattern that: 1) Meditation turns into revelation 2) Revelation activates faith 3) Faith changes things - Have you ever experienced this pattern in your own life?

Individual Response Time

- Continue working through your Voice of Victory Prayer. If you are still process the wounding words spoken over you, the lie you believed from those words, and the root that needs to be cast off, please continue to do so. If you were gone and would an example of a completed Voice of Victory prayer, go to page 160 of the Freedom book.
- If you have worked through the first three parts of the prayer, you may want to start working on the last part, the blessing from Scripture. If you'd like direction, starting on p.190 are groups of Scripture organizes by root struggles (pride, shame, etc.) you can also pick a blessing form Daily Spirit Blessings Book you feel connects with your prayer.
- The Living Word is powerful! Feel free to take some time to read and write out truth from Scripture. You might even consider personalizing one of these passages with your own name in it. If you like some direction, here are some great passages from Scripture to start with:
 - Psalm 139
 - Romans 8:1-2, 14-17, 26-28, 31-39
 - Jeremiah 29:11-13
 - Philippians 4:4-9
 - Isaiah 40:25-31

Small Group Response Time

- Within your table gather into groups of 2-3. If your prayer is done and you feel comfortable, read/declare your prayer out loud. If you picked a blessing from the blessing book, have that blessing read over you by someone in your group.
- If you are not finished with your prayer, but feel comfortable, share what you are processing within the prayer (wounding words, lies, root sin, blessing) and have someone in your group read a blessing from the book over you.
- If you would still like individual time to process and respond – please feel free to dismiss to the Lighthouse for some more time to process with the Lord.
