

EASTER

WITH THIRD CHURCH

Easter Sunday—April 12, 2020

Community:

Easter looks different this year. There are sad things about that, for sure, but there is also good in recognizing that our Earthly circumstances don't shake the Kingdom. Jesus still rose, He is still alive and there is much reason to CELEBRATE!

Reach out to those with whom you would have typically spent Easter Sunday and process a bit together:

What are you grieving the loss of this Easter?

What about that loss do you miss most and why?

How will you celebrate the resurrection in spite of that loss?

What reminders are you hearing of the truth of the unshakable nature of the Kingdom?

How will you share your celebration of Easter and the hope of the Gospel story with others this week?

Sermon Discussion Questions:

Teacher: Kevin Korver

Please take some time to view Donald Jackson's painting, "The Resurrection" (linked here). Then, please consider these questions for conversation and spiritual growth:

What do I see in this picture? Please share with another.

What does the picture make me think about? Please share with another.

What does it make me wonder? Please share?

What are some next steps you might take in the Resurrection life following Easter?
